the close of the interview they had received no answer in the affirmative or negative.

Mr. Kinkel was seen by an "Evening World" reporter after the joint delegation left. Said he:

To not see how I can accept the Republican indersement after my opponent has resigned. They know I am aware my name will strengthen the Republican ticket.

The candidates he named are a very little Republican ticket.

The they had indorsed my nomination at first I should have been glad to have accepted the support of Republicans and Independents. I prefer an honorable defeat than such an election.

This is also the substance of Mr. Kinkel's answer to the delegation who waited on him this morning.

The Republican will convene again this afternoon and either indorse Mr. Kinkel's nomination or piace a new nominations of Republican as a Republican such the individual officers, are eminently respectable in would probably be many changes in the nominations of Republican Assemblymen and Aldermen. who can't have confidence in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Here is a tonic for tired-out womanhood, a remedy for all its peculiar ills and atiments—and if it doesn't help you, there's nothing to pay.

What more can you ask for, in a medicine?

The "Prescription" will build up, strengthen, and invigorate the entire female system. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and vigor. In "female complaints" of every kind and in all chronic weaknesses and derangements, it's the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in the case of every tired-out or suffering woman, she'll have her money lack. Can any offer be more business like.
